(3) Where the Authority in exercise of the powers of this article causes a vehicle to be removed, the reasonable expenses of and incidental to its removal and safe custody shall be recoverable by the Authority from the person responsible.

(4) If the Authority in exercise of the powers conferred by this article causes a vehicle to be removed, it shall, if and as soon as it is reasonably practicable to do so, send to the person for the time being registered as the owner of the vehicle for the purposes of the Road Vehicles (Registration and Licensing) Regulations 2002(20), at that person's last known address or registered address, or the address where the vehicle is ordinarily kept, notice that the Authority has exercised the powers of this article and of the place to which the vehicle has been removed.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), and to any enactment for the time being in force limiting a person's liability, the Authority may recover from the owner of any vessel sunk, stranded or abandoned on or after the date of coming into force of this Order in relation to which it has exercised its powers under section 252 of the 1995 Act any expenses reasonably incurred by it under that section in relation to that vessel which are not reimbursed out of any proceeds of sale within the meaning of that section.

(3) Except in a case which is in the opinion of the Authority an emergency, paragraph (2) shall not apply in relation to any vessel unless, before exercising in relation to that vessel any of the powers conferred on it by section 252 of the 1995 Act, other than the power of lighting and buoying, the Authority has given to the owner of the vessel not less than 48 hours' notice of its intention to do so.

(4) If before the notice expires the Authority receives from the owner counter-notice in writing that the owner desires to dispose of the vessel themselves, the owner shall be at liberty to do so, and the Authority shall not exercise the powers in section 252 of the 1995 Act in relation to that vessel until the expiration of seven days from the receipt of the counter-notice and of any further continuous period thereafter during which the owner of the vessel proceeds with the disposal thereof with all reasonable diligence and in compliance with any directions for the prevention of interference with navigation which may be given to the owner by the Authority.

(5) Notice under paragraph (3) to the owner of any vessel may be served by the Authority either by delivering it to the owner or by sending it to the owner by registered post or the recorded

(6) In this article “owner”, in relation to any vessel, means the person who was the owner of the vessel at the time of the sinking, stranding or abandonment.

Power to deal with unseaworthy vessels

21.—(1) In addition to the powers conferred on the harbour master by section 57 of the 1847 Act (unseaworthy vessels to be altogether removed from harbour) and on the Authority by section 252 of the 1995 Act (powers of harbour and conservancy authorities in relation to wrecks) the Authority may sell, break up or otherwise dispose of any vessel which is unseaworthy and has been laid up or neglected in the port or immediately adjoining the port.

(2) The Authority may retain out of the proceeds of sale of such vessel, or any part of such proceeds, any reasonable expenses incurred by it in respect of the vessel, or in marking, buoying, lighting or otherwise controlling the vessel or warning shipping of its presence and any expenses incurred by the harbour master under section 57 of the 1847 Act and must pay the surplus, if any, to the person or body entitled to that surplus.

(3) If the proceeds of the sale are insufficient to reimburse the Authority for the said expenses, or there is no sale, the Authority may recover the deficiency, or where there is no sale, the whole of the expenses, from the owner as a simple contract debt.

(4) Except in the case of emergency, the Authority must, before exercising its powers under this article, give 14 days’ notice in writing of its intention to do so to the registered owner of the vessel and by advertisement in each of two successive weeks in a local newspaper circulating the area of the port, provided that, if the registered owner or their place of business or address is not known to the Authority or is outside of the United Kingdom, the notice may be given by displaying it at the port office of the Authority and on the port website for two successive weeks.

Removal of obstructions other than vessels, vehicles or wrecks

22.—(1) The Authority may remove under the powers of this article anything which is causing or likely to become an obstruction or impediment to the proper use of any part of the port other than—

- (a) a vessel or vehicle, or
- (b) a wreck within the meaning of Part 9 of the 1995 Act.

(2) If anything removed by the Authority under paragraph (1) is known to the Authority to be, or is so marked as to be readily identifiable as, the property of any person, the Authority shall within one month of its coming into its custody give notice, in accordance with paragraph (6), to that person and if possession of the thing is not retaken within the period specified in, and in accordance with the terms of, the notice it shall at the end of that period become the property of the Authority.

(3) If the ownership of anything removed by the Authority under paragraph (1) is not so known or marked and the ownership cannot within 3 months of its coming into the custody of the Authority be proved to the Authority’s reasonable satisfaction, it shall become the property of the Authority.

(4) The Authority may at such time and in such manner as it thinks fit dispose of anything which is of a perishable or obnoxious nature or the custody of which involves unreasonable expense or inconvenience notwithstanding that it has not vested in the Authority under this article, and if it is sold the proceeds of sale shall be applied by the Authority in payment of the reasonable expenses incurred by it under this article in relation to the thing, and any balance—

- (a) shall be paid to any person who within 3 months from the time when the thing came into custody of the Authority proves to its reasonable satisfaction that such person was the owner thereof at that time, or
 - (b) if within the said period no person proves ownership at the said time, shall become the property of the Authority.
- (5) If anything removed under this article—
- (a) is sold by the Authority and the proceeds of sale are insufficient to reimburse it for the amount of the expenses incurred in the exercise of its powers of removal, or
 - (b) is unsaleable,

the Authority may recover the deficiency or the whole of the expenses, as the case may be, from the person who was the owner when the thing removed came into the custody of the Authority or who was the owner at the time of its abandonment or loss.

(6) A notice given under paragraph (2) shall specify the thing removed and state that upon proof of ownership to the reasonable satisfaction of the Authority possession may be retaken at a place specified in the notice within the time specified therein, being not less than 14 days after the date when the notice is served.

(7) The Authority shall not under the powers of this article move anything placed or constructed by any person under the provisions of any enactment or of a consent or licence.

Power to remove goods

23.—(1) If any goods are left on or in any part of the port premises the Authority may require the owner of the goods to remove them, and if the goods are not so removed within six hours after such requirement the Authority may cause them to be removed to the Authority or any other public warehouse or store, and such removal shall be carried out at the expense and risk of the owner.

(2) Notwithstanding such removal on behalf of the Authority, the goods shall be subject to a lien for the cost of removal, and for any charges or goods dues payable to the Authority by the owner in respect of the goods under this Order or the 1964 Act.

(3) In this article, “goods” includes equipment of any description.
